Please join the Federal Connection email group via this website (tick on the Federal Connection box) for focused weekly programs Do you have a schedule of topics for these weekly programs? Where? With the Republican Trifecta in DC, we need to focus at the state level. Comments? Are we spinning our wheels at the Federal Level? Raha - what do you mean by "wedge issue?" We need to be in solidarity' - what does that mean concretely for us in the field? What can we do? Do you aticipate some republican legislators will back away from support mass deportation once they start to see how this will truly impact their businesses and state revenue? I'm thinking of states like Florida and I do, and leveraging business and economic interests is a really critical strategy for those who have the capacity to drive this	lmin CHN a Imin CHN a	wala@nilc.org admin@chn.org admin@chn.org wala@nilc.org
How do organizations that are serving neighbors through federal programs limit the information the cold: to protect imnigrants?consider updating your document retention policy to keep only information you're required to keep by law or to run your operations; and 2. refuse to provide any information to law enforcement/inmigration official sunless you're legally required to do to protect imnigrants?Raha WDo you have a schedule of topics for these weekly programs? Where?Please join the Federal Connection email group via this website (tick on the Federal Connection box) for focused weekly programs. a nut the ture. https://www.chn.org/email-list-signup/Admin CWith the Republican Trifecta in DC, we need to focus at the state level. Comments? Are we spinning our wheels at the Federal Level?Yes, you do need to focus at the state level. Comments? Are we spinning our wake you work even harder.Admin CSorry for the inside baseball terminology! What I mean is pitting Democrats against each other and utimately vulnerable communities against each other. For example, trying to "protect" X, Y, or Z program that we all care about by eliminating or restricting eligibility for that program for immigrant communities. Or scapegoating BIPOC immigrant communities for broader issues pertaining to crime and national security.Raha W"We need to be in solidarity' - what does that mean concretely for us in the field? What can we do?For this and other similar questions - part of solidarity means being willing to stay connected through listservs to get messages about proposition to cuts (or support for progress).Admin COp you anticipate some republican legislators will back away from support mass deportation once they start to see how this will truly impact their businesses and state revenue? I'm thinking of states	lmin CHN a Imin CHN a	admin@chn.org
How do organizations that are serving neighbors through federal programs limit the information thy collect   operations; and 2. refuse to provide any information to law enforcement/Immigration officials unless you're legally required to do so (e.g. via a valid subpoena or warrant, in most cases).   Raha W     Do you have a schedule of topics for these weekly programs? Where?   In the future. https://www.chn.org/email-list-signup/   Admin (C     With the Republican Trifecta in DC, we need to focus at the state level. Comments? Are we spinning our wheels at the Federal Level?   Yes, you do need to focus at the state level - but can't forget totally about federal programs - at minimum we have to fight hard to grow ork even harder.   Admin (C     Sorry for the inside baseball terminology! What meant is pitting Democrats against each other and ultimately vulnerable communities against each other. For example, trying to "protect" X, Y, or Z program that we all care about by eliminating or restricting eligibility for that program for immigrant communities. Or scapegoating BIPOC immigrant communities for broader issues pertaining to crime and national security.   Raha W     "We need to be in solidarity' - what does that mean concretely for us in the field? What can we do?   For this and other similar questions - part of solidarity means being willing to stay connected through listervs to get messages about proposals coming befere Congress, and to be willing to join in is some form of action - letters, meetings, public statements, etc even if the issues are not the ones you work on all the time. If we all remember that the people we serve utilize a range of programs, we need to be messing beoprive to work on all the time. If we all remember that the people we serve u	lmin CHN a Imin CHN a	admin@chn.org
to protect Immigrants?   so (e.g. via a valid subpoena or warrant, in most cases).   Raha W     Do you have a schedule of topics for these weekly programs? Where?   in the future. Intrust, is website (tick on the Federal Connection box) for focued weekly programs.   Admin f     With the Republican Trifecta in DC, we need to focus at the state level. Comments? Are we spinning our whet is website (tick on the redural function as most banch on extra terms of the future. Intrust, is website. Federal Inding makes up on average more than one-third of state funding - so ignoring threats will hurt states and make your work even harder.   Admin f     Raha - what do you mean by "wedge issue?"   Sorry for the inside basebal terminology! What I meant is pitting Democrats against each other and ultimately vulnerable communities against each other. For example, trying to "protect" X, y, or Z program that we all care about by eliminating or restricting eligibility for that program for immigrant communities. Or scapegoating BIPOC immigrant communities for broader issues pertaining to crime and national security.   Raha W     "We need to be in solidarity' - what does that mean concretely for us in the field? What can we do?   Por this and other similar questions - part of solidarity means being willing to jation so you can join in that don't take THAT much time, but that communicas strong opposition to cuts (or support for progress).   Admin for programs, we need to be insolidarity' - what does what mean concretely for us in the field? What can we do?   Raha W     For this and other similar questions - part of solidarity means being will ruly impact their businesses and state revenue? I'm thinking of states like Florida an	lmin CHN a Imin CHN a	admin@chn.org
Please join the Federal Connection email group via this website (tick on the Federal Connection box) for focused weekly programs   Admin 0     Do you have a schedule of topics for these weekly programs? Where?   Admin 0     With the Republican Trifecta in DC, we need to focus at the state level. Comments? Are we spinning our wheels at the Federal Level?   Yes, you do need to focus at the state level but can't forget totally about federal programs - at minimum we have to fight hard to protect programs like Medicaid and SNAP from cuts and structural changes - and preventing as much anti-immigrant action as possible. Federal funding makes up on average more than one-third of state funding - so ignoring threats will hurt states and make your work even harder.   Admin 0     Sorry for the inside baseball terminology! What I meant is pitting Democrats against each other and ultimately vulnerable communities against each other. For example, trying to "protect" X, Y, or 2 program that we all care about by eliminating or restricting eligibility for that program for immigrant communities. Or scapegoating BIPOC immigrant communities for broader issues pertaining to crime and national security.   Raha W     "We need to be in solidarity" - what does that mean concretely for us in the field? What can we do?   For this and other similar questions - part of solidarity means being willing to stay connected through listservs to get messages about proposals coming before Congress, and to be programs. we need to be programs, we need to be programs, we need to be programs on erepublican legislators will back away from support mass deportation once they start to see how this will truly impact their businesses and state revenue? I'm thinking of states like Florida and Texas.   Ido, and leveragi	lmin CHN a Imin CHN a	admin@chn.org
Do you have a schedule of topics for these weekly programs? Where?   in the future. https://www.chn.org/email-list-signup/   Admin of     With the Republican Trifecta in DC, we need to focus at the state level. Comments? Are we spinning our wheels at the Federal Level?   Yes, you do need to focus at the state level - but can't forget totally about federal programs inke Medicaid and SNAP from cuts and structural changes - and preventing as much anti-immigrant action as possible. Federal funding makes up on average more than one-third of state funding - so ignoring threats will hurt states and make your work even harder.   Admin of     Main A what do you mean by "wedge issue?"   Sorry for the inside baseball terminology! What I meant is pitting Democrats against each other. For example, trying to "protect" X, Y, or Z program that we all care about by eliminating or restricting eligibility for that program for immigrant communities. Or scapegoating BIPOC immigrant Communities for broader issues pertaining to crime and national security.   Raha W     "We need to be in solidarity' - what does that mean concretely for us in the field? What can we do?   Tor this and other similar questions - part of solidarity means being willing to stay connected through listservs to get messages about propases coming before Congress, and to be willing to join in in some form of action - letters, meetings, public statements, etc even if the issues are not the ones you work on all the time. If we all remember that the people we serve utilize a range of programs, we need to be prepared to join in fit hey are threatened. There are lots of actions you can join in that don't take THAT     "We need to be in solidarity' - what does that mean concretely for us in the field? What can we do?	lmin CHN a	admin@chn.org
Yes, you do need to focus at the state level - but can't forget totally about federal programs - at minimum we have to fight hard to protect programs like Medicaid and SNAP from cuts and structural changes - and preventing as much anti-immigrant action as possible. Federal Level?     With the Republican Trifecta in DC, we need to focus at the state level. Comments? Are we spinning our wheels at the Federal Level?   Yes, you do need to focus at the state level - but can't forget totally about federal programs - at minimum we have to fight hard to possible. Federal funding makes up on average more than one-third of state funding - so ignoring threats will hurt states and make your work even harder.   Admin C     With the Republican Trifecta in DC, we need to focus at the state level. Comments? Are we spinning our wheels at the Federal Level?   Sorry for the inside baseball terminology! What I meant is pitting Democrats against each other and ultimately vulnerable communities against each other. For example, trying to "protect" X, Y, or Z program that we all care about by eliminating or restricting eligibility for that program for immigrant communities. Or scapegoating BIPOC immigrant tomunuities for broader issues pertaining to crime and national security.   Raha W     For this and other similar questions - part of solidarity means being willing to stay connected through listservs to get messages about proposals coming before Congress, and to be willing to join in in some form of action - letters, meetings, public statements, etc even if the issues are not the ones you work on all the time. If we all remember that the people we serve utilize a range of programs, we need to be prepared to join in if they are threatened. There are lots of actions you can join in that don't take THAT     "We need to be in solidari	lmin CHN a	admin@chn.org
With the Republican Trifecta in DC, we need to focus at the state level. Comments? Are we spinning our wheels at the Federal Level?protect programs like Medicaid and SNAP from cuts and structural changes - and preventing as much anti-immigrant action as possible. Federal funding makes up on average more than one-third of state funding - so ignoring threats will hurt states and make your work even harder.Admin (Raha - what do you mean by "wedge issue?"Admin or restricting eligibility for that program for immigrant communities. Or scapegoating BIPOC immigrant communities for broader issues pertaining to crime and national security.Raha WFor this and other similar questions - part of solidarity means being willing to stay connected through listservs to get messages about proposals coming before Congress, and to be willing to join in in some form of action - letters, meetings, public statements, etc even if the issues are not the ones you work on all the time. If we all remember that the people we serve utilize a range of much time, but that communicate strong opposition to cuts (or support for progress).Admin or Admin or Admin or Admin or admin or time, and the size and the congress, and to be willing to join in in some form of action - letters, meetings, public statements, etc even if the issues are not the ones you work on all the time. If we all remember that the people we serve utilize a range of much time, but that communicate strong opposition to cuts (or support for progress).Admin or
With the Republican Trifecta in DC, we need to focus at the state level. Comments? Are we spinning our   possible. Federal funding makes up on average more than one-third of state funding - so ignoring threats will hurt states and make your work even harder.   Admin of     Sorry for the inside baseball terminology! What I meant is pitting Democrats against each other and ultimately vulnerable communities against each other. For example, trying to "protect" X, Y, or Z program that we all care about by eliminating or restricting eligibility for that program for immigrant communities. Or scapegoating BIPOC immigrant communities for broader issues pertaining to crime and national security.   Raha w     We need to be in solidarity' - what does that mean concretely for us in the field? What can we do?   For this and other similar questions - part of solidarity means being willing to join in in some form of action - letters, meetings, public statements, etc even if the issues are not the ones you work on all the time. If we all remember that the people we serve utilize a range of programs, we need to be prepared to join in if they are threatened. There are lots of actions you can join in that don't take THAT much time, but that communicate strong opposition to cuts (or support for progress).   Admin O     "We need to be in solidarity' - what does that mean concretely for us in the field? What can we do?   Mone to much time, but that communicate strong opposition to cuts (or support for progress).   Admin O     Do you anticipate some republican legislators will back away from support mass deportation once they stat to see how this will truly impact their businesses and state revenue? I'm thinking of states like Florida and texas.
wheels at the Federal Level?   make your work even harder.   Admin 0     Sorry for the inside baseball terminology! What I meant is pitting Democrats against each other and ultimately vulnerable communities against each other. For example, trying to "protect" X, Y, or Z program that we all care about by eliminating or restricting eligibility for that program for immigrant communities. Or scapegoating BIPOC immigrant communities for broader issues pertaining to crime and national security.   Raha w     Raha - what do you mean by "wedge issue?"   For this and other similar questions - part of solidarity means being willing to stay connected through listservs to get messages about proposals coming before Congress, and to be willing to join in in some form of action - letters, meetings, public statements, etc even if the issues are not the ones you work on all the time. If we all remember that the people we serve utilize a range of programs, we need to be in solidarity' - what does that mean concretely for us in the field? What can we do?   Admin (     Do you anticipate some republican legislators will back away from support mass deportation once they start to see how this will truly impact their businesses and state revenue? I'm thinking of states like Florida and toge business and economic interests is a really critical strategy for those who have the capacity to drive this. Example: https://www.vox.com/politics/392864/elon-musk-vivek-h1b-visas-trump-stephen-miller   Raha W Sorry for the inside baseball terminology! What I meant is pitting Democrats against each other and ultimately vulnerable communities against each other. For example, trying to "protect" X, Y, or Z program that we all care about by eliminating or restricting eligibility for that program for immigrant communities. Or scapegoating BIPOC immigrant communities for broader issues pertaining to crime and national security.     Raha - what do you mean by "wedge issue?"     Raha - what do you mean by "wedge issue?"     Raha - what do you mean by "wedge issue?"     Raha - what do you mean by "wedge issue?"     Raha - what do you mean by "wedge issue?"     Raha - what do you mean by "wedge issue?"     Raha - what do you mean by "wedge issue?"     Raha - what do you mean by "wedge issue?"     Raha - what do you mean by "wedge issue?"     Raha - what do you mean by "wedge issue?"     Raha - what do you mean by "wedge issue?"     Raha w communities against each other. For example, trying to "protect" X, Y, or Z program that we all care about by eliminating or     restricting eligibility for that program for immigrant communities. Or scapegoating BIPOC immigrant communities for broader     issues pertaining to crime and national security.     Raha - what do you mean by "wedge issue?"     Raha - what do you mean by "wedge issue?"     Raha - what do you mean by "wedge issue?"     Raha - what do you mean by "wedge issue?"     Raha - what do you mean by "wedge issue?"     For this and other similar questions - part of solidarity means being willing to stay connected through listservs to get messages about proposals coming before Congress, and to be willing to join in in some form of action - letters, meetings, public statements, etc even if the issues are not the ones you work on all the time. If we all remember that the people we serve utilize a range of programs, we need to be prepared to join in if they are threatened. There are lots of actions you can join in that don't take THAT     We need to be in solidarity' - what does that mean concretely for us in the field? What can we do?   Admin (they, but that communicate strong opposition to cuts (or support for progress).   Admin (they, but this, but this communicate strong opposition to cuts (or support for progress).   Admin (they are threatened). There are ally critical strategy for those who have the capacity to drive this.   Example: https://www.vox.com/politics/392864/elon-musk-vivek-h1b-visas-trump-stephen-miller.   Raha W	ha Wala v	wala@nilc.org
Raha - what do you mean by "wedge issue?"   restricting eligibility for that program for immigrant communities. Or scapegoating BIPOC immigrant communities for broader issues pertaining to crime and national security.   Raha W     Raha - what do you mean by "wedge issue?"   For this and other similar questions - part of solidarity means being willing to stay connected through listservs to get messages about proposals coming before Congress, and to be willing to join in in some form of action - letters, meetings, public statements, etc even if the issues are not the ones you work on all the time. If we all remember that the people we serve utilize a range of programs, we need to be prepared to join in if they are threatened. There are lots of actions you can join in that don't take THAT much time, but that communicate strong opposition to cuts (or support for progress).   Admin (Comparison)     Do you anticipate some republican legislators will back away from support mass deportation once they start to see how this will truly impact their businesses and state revenue? I'm thinking of states like Florida and texange business and economic interests is a really critical strategy for those who have the capacity to drive this. Example: https://www.vox.com/politics/392864/elon-musk-vivek-h1b-visas-trump-stephen-miller   Raha W	ha Wala 🛛 v	wala@nilc.org
Raha - what do you mean by "wedge issue?"   issues pertaining to crime and national security.   Raha W     Raha - what do you mean by "wedge issue?"   issues pertaining to crime and national security.   Raha W     For this and other similar questions - part of solidarity means being willing to stay connected through listservs to get messages about proposals coming before Congress, and to be willing to join in in some form of action - letters, meetings, public statements, etc even if the issues are not the ones you work on all the time. If we all remember that the people we serve utilize a range of programs, we need to be prepared to join in if they are threatened. There are lots of actions you can join in that don't take THAT much time, but that communicate strong opposition to cuts (or support for progress).   Admin of the see how this will truly impact their businesses and state revenue? I'm thinking of states like Florida and leveraging business and economic interests is a really critical strategy for those who have the capacity to drive this. Example: https://www.vox.com/politics/392864/elon-musk-vivek-h1b-visas-trump-stephen-miller   Raha W	ha Wala v	wala@nilc.org
"We need to be in solidarity' - what does that mean concretely for us in the field? What can we do?   For this and other similar questions - part of solidarity means being willing to stay connected through listservs to get messages about proposals coming before Congress, and to be willing to join in is some form of action - letters, meetings, public statements, etc even if the issues are not the ones you work on all the time. If we all remember that the people we serve utilize a range of programs, we need to be prepared to join in if they are threatened. There are lots of actions you can join in that don't take THAT much time, but that communicate strong opposition to cuts (or support for progress).   Admin (     Do you anticipate some republican legislators will back away from support mass deportation once they start to see how this will truly impact their businesses and state revenue? I'm thinking of states like Florida and Texas.   Ido, and leveraging business and economic interests is a really critical strategy for those who have the capacity to drive this. Example: https://www.vox.com/politics/392864/elon-musk-vivek-h1b-visas-trump-stephen-miller   Raha W		wala@fillc.org about proposals coming before Congress, and to be willing to join in in some form of action - letters, meetings, public statements, etc even if the issues are not the ones you work on all the time. If we all remember that the people we serve utilize a range of programs, we need to be prepared to join in if they are threatened. There are lots of actions you can join in that don't take THAT "We need to be in solidarity' - what does that mean concretely for us in the field? What can we do? Do you anticipate some republican legislators will back away from support mass deportation once they start to see how this will truly impact their businesses and state revenue? I'm thinking of states like Florida and Texas.
about proposals coming before Congress, and to be willing to join in in some form of action - letters, meetings, public statements, etc even if the issues are not the ones you work on all the time. If we all remember that the people we serve utilize a range of programs, we need to be prepared to join in if they are threatened. There are lots of actions you can join in that don't take THAT "We need to be in solidarity' - what does that mean concretely for us in the field? What can we do? Do you anticipate some republican legislators will back away from support mass deportation once they start to see how this will truly impact their businesses and state revenue? I'm thinking of states like Florida and Texas.
etc even if the issues are not the ones you work on all the time. If we all remember that the people we serve utilize a range of programs, we need to be prepared to join in if they are threatened. There are lots of actions you can join in that don't take THAT much time, but that communicate strong opposition to cuts (or support for progress). Admin to see how this will truly impact their businesses and state revenue? I'm thinking of states like Florida and leveraging business and economic interests is a really critical strategy for those who have the capacity to drive this. Example: https://www.vox.com/politics/392864/elon-musk-vivek-h1b-visas-trump-stephen-miller Raha W
"We need to be in solidarity' - what does that mean concretely for us in the field? What can we do?   programs, we need to be prepared to join in if they are threatened. There are lots of actions you can join in that don't take THAT     "We need to be in solidarity' - what does that mean concretely for us in the field? What can we do?   much time, but that communicate strong opposition to cuts (or support for progress).   Admin (Do you anticipate some republican legislators will back away from support mass deportation once they start to see how this will truly impact their businesses and state revenue? I'm thinking of states like Florida and leveraging business and economic interests is a really critical strategy for those who have the capacity to drive this. Example: https://www.vox.com/politics/392864/elon-musk-vivek-h1b-visas-trump-stephen-miller   Raha W
"We need to be in solidarity' - what does that mean concretely for us in the field? What can we do?   much time, but that communicate strong opposition to cuts (or support for progress).   Admin (     Do you anticipate some republican legislators will back away from support mass deportation once they start to see how this will truly impact their businesses and state revenue? I'm thinking of states like Florida and Texas.   I do, and leveraging business and economic interests is a really critical strategy for those who have the capacity to drive this.   Raha W
Do you anticipate some republican legislators will back away from support mass deportation once they start to see how this will truly impact their businesses and state revenue? I'm thinking of states like Florida and Texas. Example: https://www.vox.com/politics/392864/elon-musk-vivek-h1b-visas-trump-stephen-miller Raha W	lmin CHN a	admin@chn.org to see how this will truly impact their businesses and state revenue? I'm thinking of states like Florida and Texas. Log and leveraging business and economic interests is a really critical strategy for those who have the capacity to drive this. Example: https://www.vox.com/politics/392864/elon-musk-vivek-h1b-visas-trump-stephen-miller Raha W Texas. Example: https://www.vox.com/politics/392864/elon-musk-vivek-h1b-visas-trump-stephen-miller Raha W
There are a number of rapid response initiatives in the works, both national and state and local, though the most effective models	ha Wala 🛛 🛛	wala@nilc.org
There are a number of rapid response initiatives in the works, both national and state and local, though the most effective models		- 0
have been driven at the state and local level with support from national orgs like NILC. We are providing that support to various networks of state and local orgs through KYR materials and toolkits, trainings, advocacy and comms support for local advocacy What deportation rapid response networks are being setup this go around? Is there a bail bond national campaigns, messaging research, etc. Some of our partners are compiling a database of immigration legal services providers, and fund, national strategies around family planning there are other resources available though I'm less familiar with plans re: a national bail bond fund, I'll ask around! Raha W	ha Wala 🛛 🛛	wala@nilc.org What exactly is the definition of their birthright citizenship? How can they define who does, or does not, have the right to be an American citizen? I ask because could this affect those born to military or other "ex- It's complicated, you're correct Catherine. Here's a great primer: pat" American citizens. https://www.americanimmigrationcouncil.org/sites/default/files/research/birthright_citizenship_factsheet_241017.pdf Raha W	ha Wala 🛛 v	wala@nilc.org
	lmin CHN a	admin@chn.org
This is defined by state and local law so is unique to the specific state and city you're in. Roughly "sanctuary" cities are those localities that prohibit or limit cooperation with federal immigration authorities. Hoping ILRC will keep their interactive map
	ha Wala 🛛 v	wala@nilc.org
Is information sent to state governors and legislators to let them know their rights regarding not complying NILC and others are partnering with state DA offices and legal advisors for mayors, sheriffs, etc. to ensure that they are aware of
	ha Wala 🛛 v	wala@nilc.org
Yes, many of the 2017 tax law changes — including the changes to the Child Tax Credit that Amy is discussing now are scheduled to end after December 2025. Some other 2017 (mostly business) tax changes, like corporate tax breaks, are permanent and do
I'm having trouble understanding - is this 2017 tax law currently active up till December 2025?   not expire.   "Mered     Many advocates have been pushing hard to protect/increase IRS funding can get a sense of some of their efforts in this recent   "Mered	realth Dodson	mdodson@chn.org
With the poverty gap estimated at $250 billion and the IRS documenting $677 billion in annual tax cheating blogpost: https://www.chn.org/voices/organizations-urge-lawmakers-to-protect-irs-funding/. Would love to support more why aren't advocates spotlighting those two facts more often, since family income is a critical factor in thriving? advocates to engage to protect IRS funding, and hoping we may have time for Amy to address this too (but think we may not, so she may chime in via chat).	Aredith Doday	mdodson@chn.org thriving? Sine may chime in via chat). We red Sine may chime in via chat).		maouson@cnn.org
	ny Matsui a	amatsui@nwlc.org
"Fetal personhood" laws could open up quite a can of worms. Could people claim fetuses as dependents on Yes, there is great work by groups like Pregnancy Justice that outline the very serious concerns that these laws pose including	.,	aacoure nwic.org their tax returns? Could they add fetuses to their health care plans? Could a pregnant womb-bearer drive in by criminalizing behavior of pregnant people. On top of that, these laws lay the groundwork for a national (federal) abortion ban.
	ny Matsui a	amatsui@nwlc.org
	,
Is there a contradiction with the "fetal personhood" though with other benefit access work? For example, The concern here is a little different. We all support giving pregnant people the resources they need, but this is more of a legal
	ny Matsui a	amatsui@nwlc.org
Someone who does not have a SSN can file taxes using an ITIN (and children can also have ITINs). Under current law, parents with pomeone who does not have a spin can me taxes using an trin fand children can also have trinspi. Under turrent law, barents with t
Please help me understand the child tax credit. Can undocumented parents that file taxes currently claim IIINs can claim the CTC but only for children with ISSNs. This is because of a change that was made in 2017 (which is expiring in		amatsui@nwlc.org
Please help me understand the child tax credit. Can undocumented parents that file taxes currently claim ITINs can claim the CTC but only for children with SSNs. This is because of a change that was made in 2017 (which is expiring in	ıy Matsui a	8
Please help me understand the child tax credit. Can undocumented parents that file taxes currently claim ITINs can claim the CTC but only for children with SSNs. This is because of a change that was made in 2017 (which is expiring in	ny Matsui a

	I think we should push for the policies that we know would make a difference for families — a fully refundable CTC, public investments in child care, paid family and medical leave, and home- and community-based services, etc. If there are smaller Given the immense costs of tax cuts to much-needed revenues, what messaging do you recommend for	proposals in this tax bill, they should get an extremely careful look to see what help they actually offer to families AND if there are proposals focused on making ends meet - not only the CTC, but caregiver tax credits, housing tax supports,	any problematic aspects of the proposals. And then folks can weigh that, against the overall cost of the tax bill, both in terms of etc.? When/how do we determine that no tax bill is a good bill?		Amy Matsui	amatsui@nwlc.org
	If the Republicans cut SNAP and Medicaid in order to reduce the costs of the tax cuts, and then if the cost of the tax cuts is used to justify cutting federal spending, that would directly impact the health, economic security and well-being of people with
Can you speak to any specifics on how the tax cuts would impact people with disabilities, if any?		Amy Matsui	amatsui@nwlc.org
	There is a great tool that not helps people in some states file their taxes directly with the IRS plus make sure they qualify:	, any matsu	anacouennerorg
Is there a free resource that can help families make sure they qualify for all cuts or breaks available ?	https://directfile.irs.gov/.	"Meredith Dods	mdodson@chn.org
	methal/methalas.gov/.	Wierealth Dous	madason@cnn.org
Is there a free resource that can help families make sure they qualify for all cuts or breaks available ?	and this guide helps taxpayers see what credits they claim: https://www.irs.gov/credits-and-deductions-for-individuals.	"Meredith Dods	mdodson@chn.org
······································	It's both about messaging and public awareness. People understand the tax code is not fair, and that billionaires don't need more tax cuts. And then we need people to weigh in with their representatives to let them know they don't support more tax cuts at What does make it "toxic" mean? Is this about messaging?		Amy Matsui	amatsui@nwlc.org
	If we don't have time to answer this live, here is a great explainer: https://www.americanprogress.org/article/how-does-budget-	, any matsu	anacouennois
Can you talk a little bit about the limits to what can be included in a reconciliation package.	reconciliation-work/.	"Meredith Dods	mdodson@chn.org
	And here is a recording of a webinar we hosted on this last month:	Wierealth Dous	madason@cnil.org https://us02web.zoom.us/rec/play/Hdt5wGAOSCtA2qWF9Y5Yw3L7YudbqDGXWpWXtuu61-FOML3SM3iObh8iJawR63eiKhYPnfbn643GhzH8.PlusSXYsbK0oOcYe?canPlayFromShare=true&from=share_recording_detail&sta rtTime=1734022838000&componentName=rec-play&originRequestUrl=https%3A%2F%2Fus02web.zoom.us%2Frec%2Fshare%2FcDLjNgyOp_HdVUAQnw4dFiaHDly9mJjQ5yYQf5
Can you talk a little bit about the limits to what can be included in a reconciliation package.		"Morodith Dodo	mdodson@chn.org
ten you tak a little bit about the limits to what can be included in a reconcillation package.		Wereultin Dous	Indouson@cnn.org
	Some thoughts: urge them to speak out publicly and repeatedly use their bully pulpit. And, engage other friends and family in How do you recommend people in very blue states talk with our delegation about this? (i.e., they already	other places. And, some legislation including annual spending bills also known as "appropriations", and the Farm Bill (key for agree with us)		"Morodith Dode	mdodson@chn.org
I assume all these links just posted will be in follow up email too. Can't save chat on iPad		Admin CHN	admin@chn.org
	Some thoughts: urge them to speak out publicly and repeatedly use their bully pulpit. And, engage other friends and family in	Aumin Chin	aunnineunn.org
agenda??		"Morodith Dada	mdodson@chn.org agendar? If all of your representatives in Congress are Democrats, then how can you push back effectively on the GOP	other places. And some legislation including annual spending bills also known as "appropriations", and the Farm Bill (key for food assistance),	wierealth Doas	muouson@cnn.org agenda??	require bipartisan support/60 votes in the Senate. So Democrats have some leverage.	"Moradith Dada	mdadaan Qahn c agendar? are there any movements amongst those with wealth to push against tax cuts and be poverty abolitionists		wierealth Dods	mdodson@chn.org
	This group engages people with wealth to push against tax cuts for the rich: https://patrioticmillionaires.org/ (less focused on	In Associate R. J.	and a dama of the s
(as desmond, author of poverty by america would say)?	poverty)	ivieredith Dods	mdodson@chn.org